wēpa print away at BCCC

BALTIMORE CITY COMMUNITY COLLEGE
CHANGING LIVES...BUILDING COMMUNITIES

What is Wēpa?

- Wēpa is a cloud-based printing system. When you print, you're sending a file to a server connected to the internet which means you can print from your wireless mobile devices. Then, you can retrieve that file from any Wēpa print kiosk.

- This means you can send print jobs from just about anywhere, and print them out later (up to six days)

- You don't have to be connected to the BCCC network to print. You don't even have to be on campus to send a file or to print, since there are other Wēpa kiosks in the area.

- Since you don't release prints until you want them, no one will pick up your prints in error.

- Enrolled BCCC students get 250 FREE black & white pages per semester.

See bccc.libguides.com/wepa for additional details.

Three Convenient Kiosk Locations!
Two kiosks : Bard Library 1st floor
