

BCCC

Baltimore City Community College

ALLIED HUMAN SERVICES CERTIFICATE

The Allied Human Services certificate track prepares students to assist professionals in providing services such as interviewing clients, interpreting programs and services, participating in neighborhood programs and projects, case-finding and outreach activities, and providing daily services to meet the social and physical needs of clients or patients. The student's own life experience and knowledge of people are the most important qualifications for admission to this track. Credits for this track may be used toward the Associate degree in Allied Human Services.
